

Press Intelligence, Inc.
WASHINGTON 1, D. C.

RICHMOND (Va.) NEWS LEADER

Circ.: e. 99,877

Front Page

Edit
Page

Other
Page

Date: APR 9 1954

ALLEN DULLES TO SPEAK

The speaker—~~Allen W. Dulles~~, director of the Central Intelligence Agency—will be introduced by Walter S. Robertson, the Richmond investment banker who now is Assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs.

Hollister V. Schenck, of Richmond, retired insurance executive, is president of the State chamber and will preside at the banquet tonight.

The invocation at the banquet will be given by Dr. H. Bernard Lipscomb, Jr., pastor of Centenary Methodist Church in Richmond.

During the banquet, Virginius Dabney, editor of The Richmond Times-Dispatch, will present the chamber's distinguished service award for 1953 to J. B. Woodward, chairman of the board of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company.

Three other awards for outstanding contributions to the nation will be made to three Richmonders. They are Robertson; T. Coleman Andrews, director of the Internal Revenue Service, and Lewis Strauss, director of the Atomic Energy Commission.

CPYRGHT